giving of the news at first hand to the Mirror and it welcomes the opportunity to publish and feature anything the defense might believe ought to be put before the public. I put this last suggestion before you for what it is worth, leaving it to your judgment to utilize it or not.

I am looking now to the true story of how the card and the fingerprints came in to evidence and I believe I will be able to write you on Monday.

Yours very truly,

George E. Cutley
